Sen. Byrd Appointed Sixth Time

WASHINGTON, D.C. (Special) — Sen. Harry F. Byrd, Sr., has been appointed for the sixth time to serve as a member of the Senate Armed Services Subcommittee on Central Intelligence.

The appointment was made over the week-end by Sen. Richard B. Russell (D. Ga.), chairman of the Armed Services Committee. Other members of the Committee are Sen. Russell, Sen. John Stennis (D. Miss.) and Sen. Leverett Saltonstall (R. Mass.).

Sen. Byrd has been a member of the Central Intelligence Subcommittee since its origin under the National Security Act in 1955 and in point of service on the full Committee he ranks next to Chairman Russell. Both Sen. Russell and Sen. Byrd were members of the Naval Affairs Committee prior to unification of the armed services.

The functions of the Subcommittee include legislative oversight of operations under Section 102 of the National Security Act and the Central Intelligence Act, and providing a channel for liaison between the Central Intelligence Agency and the Committee on Armed Services.
